

Great white sharks are predators that eat seals, sea lions, and occasionally smaller sharks, fish, and seabirds. They are known for their ambush hunting strategy. They often approach their prey from below, using the element of surprise before launching a powerful attack.

© STEMtaught®

Copyright © STEMtaught