

Hammerhead sharks have wide-set eyes at the ends of their hammer-shaped head. This gives them a panoramic view that allows them to see in all directions. Unlike most sharks, some hammerheads will gather and swim in large schools.

Draw another hammerhead shark in the school.

