

Microscopes use curved glass and mirrors to magnify very small objects. Scientists use microscopes to look at tiny things, like cells, bugs, plants etc, up close. It helps them see details that they can't see with their eyes alone.

**Draw some insects around and on the microscope.*

