

Lab Tools: The Curies used test tubes and beakers in their lab. Scientists use these special glass tools to mix and measure different ingredients when they're doing experiments. The Curies used them to help them discover new things about elements and how they behave. These tools were like their helpers in their scientific adventures!

Draw some more test tubes or other lab tools.

Test Tube

Graduated Cylinders